

Horsham

how to find us

By train

From London or the South. Turn left out of Horsham station into North Street, walk past the Council offices and Capitol Theatre. Cross at the pelican crossing and walk along North Street past the Black Jug public house and Royal & Sun Alliance offices crossing over the road on the walkway. Spire Court can be found on the right hand side down the steps.

By car

From the A24 (north and south)

From Crawley (M23) – Take the B2195 to Horsham until you reach the station and continue as for directions from the A24.

From Brighton (A281) – Continue under the railway bridge on Queen Street. Turn right at the traffic lights at Parkway. Change to the left-hand lane and go straight ahead at the next set of traffic lights. Turn left at the roundabout on Albion Way to enter office's car park.

From Guildford (A281) – Follow the signs to the town centre and Brighton. Turn left at the first major traffic lights into Albion Way. Turn right at the roundabout on Albion Way to enter the office's car park.

Southern Housing Group is one of the largest housing associations in southern England, housing 66,000 residents, owning and managing 24,000 homes, employing 900 people and working with more than 80 local authorities

The Group's activities centre on the development of quality affordable housing, housing and neighbourhood management, a range of housing options for rent and home ownership, and social investment. We believe that investing in people and communities is as important as building homes, and this philosophy has informed our activities for over 100 years.
