Aldrington Place & Loriners Court Bellingham Crescent, Hove, BN3 7HJ

Aldrington Place (pictured) and Loriners Court (designed for slightly more active residents) are sheltered schemes promoting independent living for older people. They are attractive schemes located in Portslade, just two miles from the coast.

The schemes are five minutes' walk apart and share communal facilities at Aldrington Place. There is an active social club and chiropodists, hairdressers and a massage service all make home visits.

The main street in Portslade is five minutes' walk and a minibus collects residents once a week to take them to the nearest superstore. The railway station and bus stops are nearby.

Scheme vacancies are advertised through the Sussex Homemove choice-based lettings scheme. For more details, contact our Service Centre. We welcome residents from all sections of the community.
